ABOUT ALEXANDRA FARMS

Alexandra Farms is a family-owned boutique grower of romantic, nostalgic garden roses and dahlias nestled high in the Andes mountains of Colombia. Since 2005, we've been dedicated to cultivating flowers with exceptional beauty, fragrance and performance. Our employees care for more than 80 varieties by hand on 50 acres of fertile land. Certified by Florverde Sustainable Flowers, One Carbon World, and BASC, we proudly grow our award-winning flowers with a commitment to social and environmental responsibility. Our products are available year-round through floral wholesalers worldwide.
